Day 3

KOFFEE

Date: February 9, 2025

Venue: VLTC-L009, MNIT Jaipur

Event Overview:

For the Day 3 of Blitzschlag, ELAC organized its most anticipated event 'Koffee with ELAC'. The resemblance to 'Koffee with Karan' was definitely not uncanny but actually targeted. The additional flair was that it inclined towards the concept of speed dating to some extent which the audience found extremely gripping. The venue had a comfortable talk-show set-up with hints of extravagance and elegance. The event comprised of people participating individually or as a couple or a duo. In the case of individual participations, the participants were randomly matched with another participant and allotted some time to know the preferences of each other. When called upon the stage for a 'conversation', they were met with some questions about each other from the host and were scored by the judges on the precision of their answers. This was really a stimulating activity for the participants as well as the viewers because let us be real, who doesn't enjoy controversial talks over an enlightening cup of coffee. The event saw amazing footfall with registrations flooding in and everyone eager to talk. While there was a great participation from couples, 'Koffee with ELAC' wasn't limited to just that. A lot of friendship duos joined the frenzy to experience a time of indulgence along with some laughs.
